The Amsterdam Centre for Tax Law (ACTL) is the tax law research centre of the University of Amsterdam. ACTL members conduct research into various subjects of tax law, with a strong emphasis on Corporate Taxation, International Tax Law and European Tax Law.

Conference, Courses and a LLM in International Taxation

The ACTL regularly organizes (international) conferences, seminars and courses. Since September 2015, ACTL, in close operation with IBFD, the internationally renowned tax research institute, offers the full-time Advanced Master's (LLM) in International Tax Law: Principles, Policy and Practice.

Co-operation

The ACTL works together with other universities and research centers on a European and a global level. The most important co-operations of the ACTL are the GREIT, the Group for Research on European and International Taxation (greit-tax.eu), the ACTL's collaboration with IBFD, the International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation (ibfd.com), and partnerships with universities in North America, South America, the Russian Federation, and Asia.

Staff

The ACTL has a research staff of over twenty members, which includes professors, assistant professors and PhD researchers. In addition, several external researchers are associated with the ACTL. The ACTL professors are:

- Prof. Dr Rob Cornelisse
- Prof. Dr Sjoerd Douma
- Prof. Dr Otto Marres
- Prof. Dr Jan van de Streek
- Prof. Dr Hein Vermeulen
- Prof. Dr Peter Wattel
- Prof. Dr Dennis Weber
- Prof. Dr Stef van Weeghel
- Prof. Dr Mariken van Hilten
